Marley Spoon CEO, Fabian Siegel, highlighted, “We are pleased to report continued strong growth. Revenue again more than doubled, with Q3 reporting an increase of 118% versus the PCP on a constant currency basis.

We saw good demand across all regions as more consumers adopt online grocery shopping. This demand, combined with a favourable customer acquisition environment, helped generate better than usual unit economics. As a result, we were able to re-invest for growth, while again delivering contribution margin expansion and an overall positive Operating EBITDA quarter.

In 2020, many new customers will have experienced the advantages of ordering online and cooking with a meal-kit versus going to the traditional supermarket. We expect to continue to build scale and maintain our high levels of customer retention as the channel switch from offline to online shopping continues. This enables us to narrow our previous revenue guidance range for the year to the upper end of our previous guidance. We now expect to grow full year 2020 revenue by 90% - 100% YOY. Furthermore, with the increase in production capacity and continued structural shift to online grocery shopping, we are well positioned to drive growth next year and beyond.”

Q3 2020 BUSINESS UPDATE

In the third quarter of 2020 the Company continued to experience strong demand for its meal-kits from existing and new customers. While order frequency and average order sizes retreated from their peaks seen at the beginning of the pandemic during Q2, they remained above pre-COVID19 levels throughout the quarter.

New customer acquisition cost continues to be positively impacted by high customer demand and offline to online channel-switch dynamics. The combination of higher frequency and order sizes combined with lower acquisition cost led to unit economics that were favourable compared to prior years.

The favourable customer demand paired with strong unit economics led the Company to invest further in the quarter and to optimize for growth, continuing to build up its back book of recurring revenue business, while keeping the overall business breakeven.

Overall, Marley Spoon has reported revenue of €69.3 million for the third quarter in 2020, an increase of 109% on PCP, or 118% excluding the impact of foreign exchange (FX) movements.

This growth was achieved with improved marketing efficiency. Marketing expenses as a percentage of revenue were 14% in the quarter, compared to 31% in the PCP.

Globally, CM reached 28% and Operating Contribution Margin (Operating CM), defined as CM excluding the impacts of marketing vouchers and fixed costs such as expenses relating to site leases, ended at 37% in Q3. Both numbers show strong improvements YOY though also reflect some operational challenges in Q3 compared to the 2nd quarter. Compared to Q2 2020, CM was lower by two points due to increased sales discounts as part of higher investment in growth.

The decision to take advantage of the strong unit economics and invest into growth still led to an overall positive Operating EBITDA of €0.4 compared to a loss of €10.1 million in Q3 2019.

CASH FLOW

Marley Spoon generated a cash flow from operating activities (CFOA) of -€1.3m in Q3 2020 driven by seasonal headwinds in working capital, which is an improvement of €4.3m compared to the PCP. For the nine months ended September 30, 2020 the cash flow from operating activities was €6.7m, an improvement of €29.6m vs. the PCP. This was driven by the Company's improved profitability and a favourable movement in net working capital in the first nine months of 2020.

The cash balance increased from €5.4 million at the end of 2019 to €16.5 million at the end of Q3 2020, which includes the impact of an equity raise of net €9.2 million in Q2 2020 and capital expenditures of €6.1 million in addition to the positive operating cash flow. For the 3rd quarter, the cash balance was down €1.8m vs. June 30, 2020, roughly in line with the operating cash flow.

SEGMENT REVIEW

Australia

- Q3-20 revenue up 84% compared to PCP, or 86% excluding FX impacts
- CM at 36%; Operating CM reached 43%, up 6 pts YOY
- Operating EBITDA 13% of revenue in Q3, or €3.4 million

The Australian business delivered strong growth and profitability in Q3 with revenues of €25.3 million, and a CM of 36%, which is an increase of 5 points on the PCP. The margin performance was influenced by the temporary shift of production volume from Melbourne to Sydney due to the Melbourne site being closed for most of August.

United States

- Q3-20 revenue up 145% compared to PCP, or 163% excluding FX impacts
- CM at 23%; Operating CM reached 32%, up 5 pts YOY
- Positive operating EBITDA in Q3 of €0.7 million

Q3 revenues in the US were at €34.2 million, helped by strong growth in both Martha & Marley Spoon and Dinnerly, with CM up 6 points year over year. While CM was up year over year, the quarter over quarter reduction was a result of strong investment in growth and the related higher sales discounts as well as temporary operational challenges due to COVID-19. Towards the end of the quarter, the Company completed an upgrade of its East Coast facility, expanding its refrigerated space, thereby adding further capacity to the Company's fast-growing US operations.

Europe

- Q3-20 revenue up 83% compared to PCP
- CM at 26%; Operating CM reached 35%, up 7 pts YOY
- Operating EBITDA loss of €0.6 million excluding global headquarter costs

Growth in Marley Spoon's business in Europe continued and revenue increased to €9.8 million for the quarter. CM for Q3 reached a new high at 26%, up 6 points compared to PCP, mainly driven by the past year's site consolidation efforts, higher productivity and scale benefits in purchasing. The Company launched its Dinnerly product line in Germany in July and has seen good initial traction.
