

Alexander Kudlich

Alexander Kudlich is an experienced business leader who joined Marley Spoon as a Non-Executive Director.

Mr. Kudlich has almost 20 years of experience in tech investing and business building. His investment focus is around digital consumer and prosumer topics.

Mr. Kudlich is currently a general partner at 468 Capital GmbH & Co. KG, a venture capital firm he co-founded in 2020. 468 Capital GmbH & Co. KG invests in early-stage technology companies. He was also a member of the management board at Rocket Internet SE, a global incubator and investor in internet companies. At Rocket Internet, he oversaw the incubation of large-scale internet technology businesses, resulting in ~10 IPOs and trade sales alone (including Delivery Hero, HelloFresh and home24).

Mr. Kudlich worked in various managerial positions at Axel Springer AG after having joined them as the assistant of the chairman and CEO in 2005.